

Port of Newport
Job Announcement
Deadline: 4:00 pm, Friday, August 23, 2013

GENERAL MANAGER

The Port of Newport is seeking an extraordinary individual to lead this dynamic port on the central Oregon coast. This executive level position must be dedicated to innovative and strong leadership, developing markets for its deep draft shipping berth, providing quality service to lease holders, moorage holders and the public, sound financial principles, and positive engagement at the state/federal levels and in the local community.

The Port of Newport is poised to resume shipping from its newly renovated International Terminal. Newport is Oregon's busiest commercial and recreational fishing port and the Port of Newport provides moorage and services to both fleets. The Port holds leases with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Marine Operations Center, the Oregon State University Hatfield Marine Science Center, Rogue Brewery World Headquarters, among others, and operates an RV Park.

About the Position

The General Manager serves under the direction of an elected five-member Board of Commissioners. The GM is responsible for the overall administration of the Port's fiscal and personnel management ($11.5m annual budget, 22 employees), development and maintenance of all Port facilities and properties, and other tasks as assigned by the Port Commission.

Qualifications for the Position

A Bachelor's degree in business administration, public administration or a related field is required. A Master's Degree is desirable. At least five years experience in Senior Management, additional five years experience in the public sector, preferably in port or similar operations, or a combination thereof. Past experience should include personnel management, fiscal budget management and/or an equivalent combination of training, education and experience which demonstrates the knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to successfully perform the essential duties of the job; experience working with a board of elected officials.
